Notes

Other

- Make sure to catch the awaking as the park opens; beautiful macaws fly over the crowd to officially open the park. Be sure to sign up for Wilderness Explorers and participate in the activities all around the park. A great way to learn more about animals and get a free souvenir!
- Look for Devine, a camouflaged performance artist, who may just surprise you!

Pandora: World of Avatar

Pocket Guide to Hidden Gems in Animal Kingdom

- At the exit to Flight of Passage on the lowest level there are the handprints of James Cameron, Jon Landau, and Joe Rohde. The director and producer of the Avatar movie and the lead imaginer for Pandora at Disney.
- Look out for little frog-like animals in a water feature under the floating mountains. These creatures may just squirt you with water if you get too close!

Dinoland

Africa

- At the Harambe marketplace keep an eye out for Mickey Mouse drawn on a wall. The words “Fichwa! Fellow” are beneath Mickey. Translated, this means “hidden fellow.”
- Also near the Harambe marketplace look at the landscaping. The locals have a community garden with vegetables growing. See which plants you can identify.

Discovery Island

- In the Dinoland Boneyard, try to find the Xylobone. They are off to the right, behind the jeep. Try lifting up on one of the crates to hear the animal inside growl.
- Spend some time walking around the Tree Of Life on the paths and checking it out from different angles. It is really an amazing work of art, with 320 animals carved into it.

Asia

Africa continued

- Behind Tusker House there’s an outside eating area. Have a seat and see if you can hear the sound effects of someone cooking up a meal.
- Stop outside of the Dawa Bar. You can hear talking, a radio, dishes clanging and a knocking sound. Rumor has it that the knocking is the landlady trying to collect rent from the students living in the “hotel” above the bar. The students are apparently finding other places for their money.

- In Asia, look for the prayer trees draped in scarves. In India, this tradition is to honor loved ones who have passed on. At Kali River Rapids, take note of the detail in this queue area. Can spot the geckos in the owner’s office? After (or instead of?) riding stop on the bridge above the ride where you can drench some unsuspecting rider.
